Motion for Relief from Order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure - Rule 60(b)

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF R.I.

The following Motion is presented to the Honorable Court by the defendant Pro Se due to the Motion to Appoint Counsel (ECF No 76) being denied by this receiving court. The Defendant is not an attorney and has no legal experience or knowledge and is submitting this motion while incarcerated, during Covid-19 protocols with limited resources, to research and investigate as well as communicate or utilize resources to assist the defendant in his action, this motion and attempt to effectively represent himself.

1. The Court's decision was made on 9/15/22 at 2:19pm. The decision was made without reference to and receipt of Defendant's motion in Objections dated 9/15/22 (see attached) and prior to the deadline for responses due by 9/26/2022 (See Attachment 2)
2. The Defendant reiterates his objection to the excessive amount of time requested (60) days and the overly broad grant of waiver of Attorney-Client privilege for which the order contains no

2. (cont) Limitations. Additionally, actions by the court demonstrate that while the defendant must represent himself Pro Se due to the denial of Counsel by this Court, his present incarceration hinders and prejudices the defendant's ability to be heard in a timely manner by the court in motions, in objection and otherwise being presented. As demonstrated herewith.

3. The granting of the order (ECF No. 87) prior to consideration of the Defendants Objection and prior to the Court designated Response deadline of 9/26/22 is prejudicial.

The Defendant request relief as stated in Motion in Objection dated 9/15/22 and attached.

Respectfully Submitted
